The following information is believed to be more accurate than that reported [REDACTED] which stated that the arrival in Rome of an Egyptian commercial mission headed by Wakhba Pasha was expected in the near future.

25X1A2g

1. Wakhba Bey whose office is in the Piazza di Spagna in Rome is reported to be the representative of an Egyptian commercial mission of about seventeen persons headed by Murad Bey who arrived in Italy at the end of September and left for Bern about two weeks ago after negotiating with Italian cotton spinning and weaving heads in Milan in regard to cotton imports.
2. It is believed that in the near future Armando Marchetti will be sent as commercial attaché to Cairo where Italo-Egyptian negotiations concerning a commercial treaty are still in progress.
3. Adolfo Alessandrini will reportedly be named Italian Minister to Lebanon.
